The party boarded this special train and were first taken up to the point near Hollywood, where the company contemplate, beginning its stee! viaduct, which is to extend around the city on the outh side, entering an elegant 200,000 depot near the Old Market on Main street. Mr. Axtell explained carefully und at length the plans of the railroad, which were embraced in the ordinance presented recently to the Counci, and which was printed in full in the Dispatch. The party returned fic Ninth street, where the proposed viaduct over that the roughfare was explained and the train moved along to Seventeenth street. At this point there will have to be made some changes in the dock. The viaduct will cross the basin diagonally at the northwest corner, and the present basis will be enlarged and dredged deeper. The inspectors proceeded around to the Orleans-street station, where they disembarked and went to Franklin street. Here the contempated changes were pointed out. It was stated that when the new depot and viaduct shall have been finished the present passenger yard between Broad and Markhall streets will be cleared of its present buildings and it will be converted into a coach-cleaning yard, with a nice express station, railroad laundry, etc.

THE COMMITTEE IN SESSION.

The members of the committee appeared to be much impressed and greatly pleased with the schemes of the Chesapeake and Ohlo, and when the tour had ended they repaired to the City Hall, where they were called to order by Chairman Allen. Inasmuch as the City Attorney and Engineer were not yet ready to report an ordinance in regard to the Chesapeake and Ohlo's plans, the railway matter was deferred until another meeting.

Captain A. B. Guigon, counsel for the Standard Telephone Company, appeared before the committee and presented a lengthy petition for permission to locate poles of that company. The location of the poles had been approved by the City Engineer and the Superintendent of the Fire-Alarm Department, and the privileges asked were promptly granted. Captain Guigon said that his company hoped to commence the work of putting up its poles to-morrow.

BACING-BILL TO BE PRESENTED.

It will Probably Cause a Big Pight in the General Assembly. It is understood that the bill which has been prepared and will soon be introduced in the General Assembly, legalizing horse-racing in Virginia, except in the three winter months, is practically after the order of the Indiana law. Some of those connected with the management of agricultural fair associations are said to favor the enactment of such a law, believing that it will advance the interests of horse-raising and add to the interests of fairs held in Virginia by having a well arranged circuit with meetings of not exceeding fifteen days each. The bill as drawn is said to authorize pool-selling, and will again bring before the Seneral Assembly this subject, over which there has already been two or three exciting legislative fights.

When restored to consciousness he said that he was an employee of the Chesapeake and Ohlo Hailway Company, and worked at the Second-street shops. He was on his way to the Seventeenth-streets shops, to do some work there, he said, when he was attacked by three white men, one of whom struck him on the head with a rock, Their intention must have been to rob him, but as he had nothing upon his person they were disappointed in this.

OTHER DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

Mr. A. L. Hirshberg, youngest son of Mrs. C. Hirshberg and the late Joseph Hirshberg, of this city, died at the residence of his mother, 4il north Fourth street, yesterday afternoon. He was in the 24th year of his age, and was well known and generally liked. During the past three years Mr. Hirshberg had resided in Newport News, and was engaged as a clerk for his brother, Mr. J. A. Hirshberg. He was for a long while sergeant in Company D. of this city, and was a charter member of Newport News Lodge of Elks. Mr. Hirshberg was a brother of Messrs. Isa, M. E., and Samuel Hirshberg, of this city, and J. A. Hirshberg, of Newport News. His funeral will take place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Mrs. John Morton, of this city, yesterday received a telegram saying that her only sister, Mrs. John G. Cosgriff, of New York, had Just died, after a short lilness, and that Mr. Cosgriff was in a critical condition. Mr. and Mrs. Morton left at once for New York. Mrs. Morton is a sister of the late Peter Henderson, the seedman, of New York.

Mrs. Mary Brook, relict of Thomas T. Brook, died at her residence, No. 627 south First street, Wednerday night, after a lingering lilness, which she bore with Christian fortitude.

A very delightful party was given by Miss Lula Evans at her home, on south First street, Tuesday evening. The time was very pleasantly spent in games, dancing, etc., until il o'clock, when those present retired to the dining-room, where a most delightful supper was served, after which the New Year was welcomed with the ringing of bells and a fine display of fireworks. Among the laddes present were Miss Butcher, Miss Black, Misses Ada and Estelle Slaughter, and Misses Lula and Rosalie Evans. Folks who prefer giving New Year gifts instead of Christmas gifts will find that we have a stock here, bought in anticipation of New Year buyers. There is some advantages in the prices, too, and goods that before Christmas cost 15 per cent. more in other stores can be bought here for that much less. The prices will bear comparison with other stores—the quality, too. Can we say more?
